

Indo-European Business Forum celebrates sustainability partnerships in UK

Updated: Oct 11 2023 6:22PM

By Aditi Khanna

London, Oct 11 (PTI) Entrepreneurs and business disruptors from India and Europe who have been working towards sustainable growth were among those honoured with Awards of Excellence at the annual Indo-European Business Forum (IEBF) meet in the House of Lords complex.

The 2023 IEBF event on Tuesday evening, themed around 'Unicorns and Sustainable Development', was aimed at enhancing business opportunities in the global economy as part of its core objective of enhancing a collaborative path between India, the UK and other European countries.

Among the winners of the awards included Max Garza, Chief Blockchain Officer, Faction AI, as Disruptor of the Year; Biswanath Patnaik, Founder of FinNest Group as the Social Entrepreneur of the Year; Sudha Reddy, Chairperson of Sudha Reddy Foundation, as the Female Entrepreneur of the Year; and Alexandra Sasha, First Deputy to the Danish Parliament, for her work in the field of sustainability and Europe-India partnerships.

Please log in to get detailed story.

TOP NEWS

Misappropriation of funds: SC directs activist Teesta Setalvad, her husband to cooperate with Gujarat Police

Cash-for-query case: Mahua Moitra to appear before ethics panel on Nov 2

Delhi's air quality sinks further into very poor category

2 coaches, engine of Suhaildev Express derail at Prayagraj station in UP, no casualty reported

Congress names 61 more candidates for Rajasthan polls

Manipur SDPO shot dead in sniper attack; state govt recommends banning tribal group under UAPA

Attrition high at some pvt sector banks, RBI monitoring the issue closely: Das